

The writer of Ecclesiastes says, "For everything there is a season..."

As I write to you on this Labor Day weekend, I am aware that the back to school season has passed, football season has arrived, the leaves will soon change, and we will be carving pumpkins. For a time, my family lived in a place where fall did not exist. September, October, and November all still appeared on the calendar, but at a consistent sunny 90 degrees, the seasons didn't feel quite the same. When we visited Augusta last fall to meet with the PNC, I mentioned that their timing was perfect. That weekend we wore sweaters, sipped apple cider, and sat outside in front of the fire. While Andy was cheering on the Dawgs, I was imagining this season here with you.

'Tis the season to kick off our fall programming! Inside this booklet you'll find information about opportunities for worship, study, and service. You can read about Choir, Sunday School, InAsMuch Day, and so much more.

It is a joyful season at Reid Memorial. After a long and challenging interim, God has called each of the individuals pictured below to work and serve alongside you. Thanks be to God for the blessing of being fully staffed! God is at work among us, which leads me to believe that it is going to be a great fall, y'all.

Much Peace, Hope, Love, and Joy to you.
